1:30 PM	2:05 PM	35m	Dr. Andrew Mac Intosh	Title: Community Building   Description: Participants discuss what it means to build a community, the value in doing so and the potential leadership challenges during this process. Participants are challenged to build a trophy with limited guidance. The objective is to observe the way in which the group organizes and structures their approach to the task. The trophy is a metaphor for a community. The leadership demonstrated by individual members and the group are critical in helping them be successful at the task. Participants discuss the importance of community building and the elements and ingredients involved in the process. They also outline the role(s) they can play in building their communities	Grand A (Boys): Breakout Session
